| 2.   | on 17 January, the barracks installation in Loebstedt was occupied by about 1,500 troops. Two thirds of the troops were tank insignia and one third artillery insignia. On 15 January, about 60 soldiers practiced with 6 SU-100s in the barracks yard. Other soldiers did maintenance duty on 4 T-34/85 tanks parked in front of one of the garages. On 17 January, about 180 soldiers  |   |  |  |  |
| 3.  | on 17 January, the Forst Kaserne was occupied. From 5 to 9 p.m. on 14 January, soldiers engaged in an exercise in the area behind the installation. Several guns were noticed. Machine gun and rifle fire was even heard in the town. On 16 January, several groups of up to 40 soldiers carrying luggage left the installation toward the railroad station. They boarded regular trains toward Weimar.  |   |  |  |  |
| 4  | On 20 January, the barracks installation in Loebstedt was still occupied as was observed before. On 14 January, soldiers entered the installation from the direction of Rothenstein where they had been engaged in firing practice and 25X field training. On 18 January, armored scout car left the installation  |   |  |  |  |
